MORE PEOPLE PROTECTED FROM DISCRIMINATION!

From 31st October 2007 anyone with cancer, HIV and MS are now covered by the disability discrimination legislation from the point of diagnosis. In addition people with mental ill health will no longer have to prove that their conditions are 'clinically well recognised'.

For more information about these changes, please contact the Equality Commission at 028 90 890 890 (enquiry line) or log on to the website at www.equalityni.org
